

NEW RAILROADS IN EASTERN OHIO

The Toledo-Mingo Junction Line Said to Be a Certainty at an Early Date.

WORK TO BE PUSHED RAPIDLY

Proposed Erie Railroad Branch to Pittsburg From Lisbon Said to Be One of the Plans of J. J. Hill, Making the Shortest Route to Chicago.

Pittsburg, April 5.—"So far as I know it is the plan of the Pittsburg, Toledo & Western railroad, which was incorporated yesterday at Columbus, O., to go right ahead with an independent road, building it from Toledo to Mingo, on the Ohio river, or a point near Mingo. From that point it will cross the Ohio and make connections with the Pittsburg & Carnegie," said J. W. Patterson, an engineer of this city, one of the incorporators of the road, yesterday. "We have carried our plans along well so far. The Pittsburg & Carnegie was incorporated at Harrisburg quietly in January, and all we wish now is action by the city councils upon the ordinance that will give us our way into this city. "Just as soon as possible after the passage of this ordinance the work of construction will be started, and it is the present intention to build the road with all possible speed. With the number of men that will be placed at work it seems to me possible that the line to Mingo, on the Ohio river, will be finished within the year. From there a bridge will be built across the Ohio. I know of absolutely no arrangements with the Wheeling & Lake Erie railroad that are planned by this railroad. It is an independent line and we will welcome connections with all other lines.

"The road is intended to serve all the purposes of a railroad. It will, naturally do a large coal business in the region through which it will pass between here and the Ohio, but it will also go after the iron and steel as well as general freight and passenger business."

The New York correspondent of the Commercial Gazette, in speaking of Erie railroad improvements to be carried out in accordance with the plans of J. J. Hill, who, it is said, proposes to spend $5,000,000 or $6,000,000 on the road, says:

"One of the incidental improvements of the Erie system will be the construction of a branch line into Pittsburg. This line is to be built from Lisbon, and will be about 45 miles long. Upon its completion the Erie will have a line between Pittsburg and Cleveland only 126 miles long. By building another line from Lisbon to Sterling the Erie will have the shortest route to Chicago."

A WELLSVILLE INVENTOR

Has Designed an Automatic Street Car Brake And Will Have It Patented.

D. E. Brockett, of Wellsville, has applied for a patent for a brake intended for use on street cars. Mr. Brockett began work on the brake after the accident on the Calcutta road car line in East Liverpool, in which James Christy, of that city, a motorman, was killed.

The brake is a pair of steel shoes which are placed in front of the rear wheels of the car. When it is necessary to use the brake the motorman releases it by means of a brake wheel in the cab of the car. The shoes then grip both the wheel and the rail and stop the car. The top of the shoe rises to a point about the middle of the wheel.

The brake also works automatically, and this is its most valuable feature. Mr. Brockett intends to explain the brake to the manufacturers of street railway cars, and he hopes to have a car equipped with his brake on exhibition at the Pan-American exposition at Buffalo this summer. Mr. Brockett's son and C. B. Craig are interested in the invention.

MAY BE A BREAK.

HOD CARRIERS' TROUBLE LIKELY TO END SOON.

Four of the Thirty Members Are Said to Favor a Compromise.

From present indications the prospects for a break in the hod carriers' strike are good.

There are some 30 members in the union, and the entire number, with the exception of four, are colored men. It is said that the white members are not nearly so radical as the negroes, and would favor a compromise if it were possible to effect one. The colored portion of the membership will not agree to this, but insist upon remaining in their original position and stand out for the uniform price of $2.50 per day.

The four white men were in favor of a compromise that will make the wages $2.25, and believe if this proposition is made they will be put to work by the contractors at once.

WILL IT BE NICE OR MARSHALL?

This Question Will Likely Be Settled at a Caucus This Evening.

A DEADLOCK IS POSSIBLE

Although a Majority of Those Who Are Apparently on the Inside Maintain That Nice Has a Sure Thing. Another Caucus Monday.

The old members of council who remain in the body, together with those chosen at the recent election, will caucus at the fire station this evening.

It has been the custom for many years to arrange the affairs of the new organization in caucus, and thus avoid the necessary annoyance of contests and wrangles over the presidency and various other matters which invariably require time to settle.

It was stated yesterday that the race for the presidency had narrowed down to a two-sided fight, and the contest would be between Nice and Marshall. A man who claims to be on the inside made the statement that Mr. Horwell, of the Third ward was the only member who had not as yet disclosed his preference, and that the race was so close that, should Mr. Horwell decide to support Nice, his would be the vote needed to elect him, while if he would vote for Marshall it would be an even split—five and five—and the mayor would have the deciding vote.

From what could be learned of the situation aside from this, not much credence is given the opinion outlined above. As matters now stand, it looks very much as though Nice would be the man with a good safe majority.

One of the new members said today: "Dr. Marshall has made one of the best presiding officers that ever occupied the position in the city council, but if his position is a good thing to have, it should be distributed among the whole membership, who have just as much right to enjoy the better offices as the doctor. On the other hand, if the presidency is not a desirable berth, there is no reason why some of the other members should not bear their share of the responsibilities and annoyances connected with the position."

However, the agony will be over after tonight's meeting, as it is confidently expected that when the test of strength is canvassed this evening the aspirant having the largest following will have a sufficient number of friends to make his election on next Tuesday an assured fact.

City Clerk Hanley today issued a call for a caucus to be held on Monday night. This call is authorized by President Marshall.

ELKS' INSTALLATION.

New Officers Enter Upon Their Duties—An Enjoyable Social Session.

The local lodge of Elks installed officers at their meeting last night, and after the business of the session was completed a very enjoyable social session was held. The officers installed are as follows:

Exalted ruler, Ed Carson; esteemed leading knight, Ed Gould; loyal knight, Frank McNutt; lecturing knight, J. J. Rose; secretary, J. S. Hilbert; treasurer, G. Bendheim; tyler, James Early; trustee, Henry Joseph.

About 40 members were present and an elaborate banquet was served. Henry Smith acted as toastmaster, and addresses were made by a number of the members present, the remarks of Mr. Riley, a visitor from Detroit, being one of the pleasing features of the evening's entertainment. A number of other visitors were in attendance from abroad.

A BRIDE OF LAST MAY.

MRS. MARY HULME COMPLAINS OF ILL TREATMENT.

Husband Struck And Choked Her And Used a Shotgun—Another Divorce-Seeker.

Lisbon, April 5.—(Special.)—Mary A. Hulme, of East Liverpool, wants the court to grant her an order for alimony against Arthur A. Hulme. They were married only last May. Less than two months ago she alleges that he struck her with his fist, choked her and called her vile names. She says he drove her from the house with a shotgun. Since this time they have not lived together, the plaintiff earning her own living. Hulme owns lot No. 3184 in Bradshaw's second addition and one Ralph Scragg has money in his possession due him as wages. The wife wants alimony and an injunction restraining Hulme from disposing of his property.

Lizzie L. Wallace, of Salem, has sued for a divorce from Charles R. Wallace. They were married in 1895 and have three children. The wife accuses Wallace of gross neglect of duty for several years. During the past two years, she states that she has been compelled to keep boarders to support herself and children. She says she owns all the household furniture and has reason to believe that the defendant is about to dispose of it unless the court will restrain him. She also asks the custody of her children.

The assignment for this week in court has gone under, and Judge Robinson left this morning for his home in Ravenna. Court convenes next Monday afternoon at 1 o'clock, when Judge Hole will be on the bench.

TILE COMBINE

Jersey Corporation Chartered With the Object of Controlling the Industry.

Trenton, N. J., April 5.—The American Tile company, whose object is said to be to absorb the leading tile manufacturing plants in the country, has been incorporated in the office of the secretary of state. The capital stock authorized by the charter is only $50,000. This amount, it is understood, will be increased if the proposed deal is successful.

Among the concerns which are expected to be absorbed if the present plans of the syndicate are carried out are the Trent Tile Works, of this city, and the Robertson Art Tile Works, of Morrisville. Propositions looking toward the purchase of these plants have already been made.

While the purpose of the newly formed company is admittedly to form a gigantic tile syndicate by absorbing other concerns, men who are closely connected with the tile industry are inclined to be skeptical as to the final outcome. The enterprise is backed by New York capitalists.

TURNERS AND HANDLERS

Harold Anderson and Jesse Hanley returned to their home in this city yesterday afternoon after a visit with relatives at East Palestine and Rochester.

DID NOT TURN IN ALL OF THE MONEY

Joseph Hartz Was Short In His Accounts and Tried to Leave Town.

WAS PULLED FROM A TRAIN

Tried to Get Away From Officers But Was Too Drunk—Cash Was All Gone But 50 Cents And He May Go to the Works.

Business at police headquarters livened up to some extent and three arrests were recorded last evening.

Joseph Hartz came to this city three weeks ago from Wheeling, and secured employment. He has been drinking heavily for several days and yesterday got himself into a predicament that will probably land him in the workhouse.

Not long ago Hartz secured employment with the Bagley company, selling produce. He had been out with the wagon yesterday, and evidently did well, as the vehicle was empty when he left it at the store on Second street.

His absence was not noticed for some time, but when discovered it was also found that Joe was about $4.50 short in his accounts.

A search was made for the missing man, but it was not until the west-bound train was about to pull out that he was seen seated on the rear steps of the train, with a very fair-sized jag. He had a ticket for Bridgeport, and when ordered by W. W. Bagley to get off he refused to comply. Mr. Bagley appealed to the brakeman, but he refused to do anything. Hartz got off the train of his own accord and staggered up the platform toward Broadway. Meanwhile Bagley had secured the assistance of Officer Mahoney and together they went after the man. The case proved anything but exciting. Hartz was so drunk that he could not run, although he made several attempts. The officer caught him shortly after he made the turn at Cook street, heading for the bridge. He was taken to jail and searched. But 50 cents was found on him, and the claim of Bagley's went unsatisfied.

However, a charge of drunk and disorderly was placed against him, and Mayor Davidson assessed a fine of $9.60. Unless he pays up today he will be sent to the works in the morning.

Just as all arrangements had been completed to send John Brick to the workhouse this morning his wife and boys came to his rescue with the necessary money to pay his fine of $9.60. John had a narrow escape, and he appreciates it.

Joe Kennedy and Toby Burke, who get into trouble every time they get together, were doing a few of the up-town places last evening and as a result were pretty well loaded when Officers Gill and Aufderheide ran across them. They were permitted to sleep in the city jail. Mayor Davidson fined them each $9.60 and they arranged to pay.

An East End Nuisance That the People Want to See Abolished.

A number of the residents of First and Virginia avenues are complaining of a pond of stagnant water that extends from Holsman's stable to the fire station and from Virginia avenue to the alley. Under present conditions it is likely to remain there all summer.

The pond is fed from the Boyce spring, which is a very strong one and will cover several lots in the low-ground before it is high enough for a natural outlet. The water from this spring until lately was drained by a pipe and was utilized for the raising of water cress by Aaron McDonald.

When Mr. McDonald moved to Delaware the pipes were still left in the ground, but a part of them have been broken in and filled up and now the water has no outlet. It is said that a complaint will be made to the city council concerning the matter.

Jealous Women Get Their Fighting Blood Up and Have a Bloody Battle.

ONE FALLS BADLY WOUNDED

Anxious to Recover to Again Fight Her Opponent—Husbands Were Hunting Each Other to Kill and Partisans Burnishing Up Weapons.

Newkirk, Okla., April 5.—Mrs. Ella Zeiglin and Mrs. Daughson, living near this city, fought a duel with revolvers, and Mrs. Zeiglin is now in a hospital, dangerously but not necessarily fatally wounded. Two of her opponent's shots lodged in her breast, but she was able to talk volubly and was anxious to recover, that she might again fight Mrs. Daughson.

Mrs. Daughson lives on a farm just south of the city, and Mrs. Zeiglin had frequently endeavored to arouse the temper of her neighbor by various means, the most effectual being the claim that she (Mrs. Zeiglin) could take Mrs. Daughson's husband away from his wife any time she wished.

Mrs. Daughson finally appealed to the courts and Mrs. Zeiglin was fined $300 for trespassing upon the Daughson property and inciting trouble. As soon as she paid the fine Mrs. Zeiglin drove out to the Daughson home, smarting under the loss of money, and the criticism of the trial judge. Riding up to the door of the Daughson home, she dared her rival to come out and fight a duel.

Mrs. Daughson promptly accepted the challenge and came out, armed with a revolver. The women then faced each other at about 50 feet and began shooting, the signal being given by a daughter of Mrs. Zeiglin who had accompanied her from town. Each fired three shots without effect. Then Mrs. Daughson got the range and fired two shot in quick succession, both striking Mrs. Zeiglin in the breast. She fell and Mrs. Daughson assisted in carrying her into the house, where a physician dressed her wounds, after which she was conveyed to a hospital.

The husbands of the women were seeking each other, vowing to kill on sight. Some of the partisans of each woman were also burnishing up their weapons and seeking an excuse to shoot somebody. During the trial the two women attempted several times to fly at each other and fight it out then and there.

Mrs. Zeiglin said her revolver refused to work after the first three shots and that she will make a better record when next she faces Mrs. Daughson. The latter had not been arrested and grimly remarked that she had taken the precaution to reload her revolver and oil its joints, and that she could be found at home by anyone looking for an argument.

An East End Nuisance That the People Want to See Abolished.

A number of the residents of First and Virginia avenues are complaining of a pond of stagnant water that extends from Holsman's stable to the fire station and from Virginia avenue to the alley. Under present conditions it is likely to remain there all summer.

The pond is fed from the Boyce spring, which is a very strong one and will cover several lots in the low-ground before it is high enough for a natural outlet. The water from this spring until lately was drained by a pipe and was utilized for the raising of water cress by Aaron McDonald.

When Mr. McDonald moved to Delaware the pipes were still left in the ground, but a part of them have been broken in and filled up and now the water has no outlet. It is said that a complaint will be made to the city council concerning the matter.

THE ELOPERS FOILED

President of a Blue Grass Country College Fired Upon Young Gallants.

HE PREVENTED FIVE MARRIAGES

Grand Jury at Bowling Green, Ky., Investigated and Love-Lorn Young Ladies May Have to Appear as Witnesses at a Trial.

Owensboro, Ky., April 5.—A sensation that happened in Bowling Green was given attention by the grand jury and became public property, despite endeavors of a number of people of influence to have the details kept secret. The affair comprehended an interrupted elopement of five young women from Potter college, Bowling Green, one of the prominent seminaries for young women in the south.

One night recently five young men, all members of wealthy families, drove in carriages to the college, and, with ladders, aided four young women to leave the building by climbing through second-story windows. While assisting the fifth to reach the ground the young men made so much noise that President Cabell was roused. Seizing a shotgun, the president began shooting at the young men, who returned his fire. Two of the young men were wounded, but the president was not hurt. The girls screamed, but returned to their rooms, and the swains went away without them. The girls are members of the best families in Kentucky, and if indictments shall be found it is probable they will have to appear as witnesses at the trial.

SLOWLY RISING.

The River 22 Feet This Morning. Only One Towboat Up Yesterday.

The marks at the wharf this morning registered 22 feet and rising very slowly. It is thought the 25 foot stage will not be reached. The Greenwood and Lorena passed up last night, the Ben Hur passed down and the Keystone State will be up tonight. The Greenwood last night brought 35 passengers, 10 tons of straw and 3,000 hoop poles to this city. The only towboat to pass this city yesterday was the John W. Ailes. It went up with a large tow of empties.

Word was received in the city this morning that David Shumaker had died at his home in Beaver from blood poisoning, aged 74 years. He was born in Huntingdon county, Pa., and went to Beaver with his parents in 1832, having resided there ever since. He was a mate for 35 years on different passenger steamers plying the Ohio, Mississippi and other southern rivers, and was well known to the rivermen in this city.

NEW SEBRING PLANT.

POTTERY WILL BE 130x500 AND HAVE 12 KILNS.

Expected to Employ 300 People And Add 1,000 to Sebring's Population.

Sebring, April 5.—Evas Sebring, manager of the Klondike pottery, East Liverpool, was in town yesterday and in an interview stated that a duplicate plant will be erected in Sebring at once, and will continue to be operated as the French China company under his management. Work will be begun this week. Already surveyors are on the grounds.

The plant will be 130x500 feet, and 12 kilns will be built—six for green ware and six for decorated ware. It will employ about 300 people. This latest plant will be erected just west of the Sebring pottery plant. It is expected that this new industry will bring in at least 1,000 more people here the coming summer.

Trolley Road From Pittsburg to Monaca May Extend Into Ohio.

Pittsburg, April 5.—Work will probably soon be started on a new electric line from Coraopolis to Monaca, which will go through a large territory suitable for manufacturing and building purposes. The road will be 12 miles long, and the surveys for it were made some time ago.

The new railway is said to be a link in the proposed traction road from Cleveland to Pittsburg by way of Beaver Falls, Salem, Sebring, Alliance, Ravenna, Kent, and from Kent to Cleveland. Already the Northern Ohio Traction company is operating north of Alliance. Several large manufacturing concerns have looked over this territory with a view to building. ## THE ELOPERS FOILED

President of a Blue Grass Country College Fired Upon Young Gallants.

HE PREVENTED FIVE MARRIAGES

Grand Jury at Bowling Green, Ky., Investigated and Love-Lorn Young Ladies May Have to Appear as Witnesses at a Trial.

Owensboro, Ky., April 5.—A sensation that happened in Bowling Green was given attention by the grand jury and became public property, despite endeavors of a number of people of influence to have the details kept secret. The affair comprehended an interrupted elopement of five young women from Potter college, Bowling Green, one of the prominent seminaries for young women in the south.

One night recently five young men, all members of wealthy families, drove in carriages to the college, and, with ladders, aided four young women to leave the building by climbing through second-story windows. While assisting the fifth to reach the ground the young men made so much noise that President Cabell was roused. Seizing a shotgun, the president began shooting at the young men, who returned his fire. Two of the young men were wounded, but the president was not hurt. The girls screamed, but returned to their rooms, and the swains went away without them. The girls are members of the best families in Kentucky, and if indictments shall be found it is probable they will have to appear as witnesses at the trial.

SLOWLY RISING.

The River 22 Feet This Morning. Only One Towboat Up Yesterday.

The marks at the wharf this morning registered 22 feet and rising very slowly. It is thought the 25 foot stage will not be reached. The Greenwood and Lorena passed up last night, the Ben Hur passed down and the Keystone State will be up tonight. The Greenwood last night brought 35 passengers, 10 tons of straw and 3,000 hoop poles to this city. The only towboat to pass this city yesterday was the John W. Ailes. It went up with a large tow of empties.

Word was received in the city this morning that David Shumaker had died at his home in Beaver from blood poisoning, aged 74 years. He was born in Huntingdon county, Pa. and went to Beaver with his parents in 1832, having resided there ever since. He was a mate for 35 years on different passenger steamers plying the Ohio, Mississippi and other southern rivers, and was well known to the rivermen in this city.

NEW SEBRING PLANT.

POTTERY WILL BE 130x500 AND HAVE 12 KILNS.

Expected to Employ 300 People And Add 1,000 to Sebring's Population.

Sebring, April 5.—Evas Sebring, manager of the Klondike pottery, East Liverpool, was in town yesterday and in an interview stated that a duplicate plant will be erected in Sebring at once, and will continue to be operated as the French China company under his management. Work will be begun this week. Already surveys are on the grounds.

The plant will be 130x500 feet, and 12 kilns will be built—six for green ware and six for decorated ware. It will employ about 300 people. This latest plant will be erected just west of the Sebring pottery plant. It is expected that this new industry will bring in at least 1,000 more people here the coming summer.

RURAL FREE DELIVERY.

The rural free delivery mail routes are about to be established in the northern part of Columbiana county. This cannot fail to be a blessing to the people along the routes and yet, we are told, objections are being raised. Even one newspaper, which usually displays sounder judgment, doubts if free delivery will be a benefit. The farmers, it says, getting their mail regularly, and depending upon the carriers to do some of their small errands in town, will visit the stores less frequently and business may suffer. This is ridiculous reasoning.

The farmers will eat just as much and their grocery bills will be just as heavy, no matter whether they go to town twice a week or twice a month. And the same is true of the other supplies which they purchase from the local merchants. Perhaps they will be seen less frequently in the stores, but when they do come they will make larger purchases. How the merchants are going to lose anything we fail to see.

Then think of the advantages to the farmer, for whose benefit the rural delivery system is devised and put in operation. He is brought in close touch with the world. He can get his daily paper the day it is printed without leaving his work to go to the post office for it. He can keep himself closely informed on market conditions and the world's news in general. He will have more leisure to read, because he will save the time formerly taken up in trips to the store.

Rural free delivery is no longer an experiment. It has been tried in nearly every state in the union, and has been a success. Few communities fail to appreciate its advantages; or if they do so at the start the practical workings of the system soon dispose of all objections. It is a success elsewhere and it will be in Columbiana county. It is a promoter of pleasure, comfort and education. Under it the farmers and their families read more, write more and receive more mail matter. It is also an inducement to improve the roads, for the government will not establish a route over rabbit paths and holes in the mud. It is a good thing any way it is looked at, as those who enjoy its advantages are sure to discover.

TRAGEDIES AND LIFE FAILURES.

Bishop H. C. Potter, in a recent magazine article, sets forth in vigorous language the perils and pitfalls that confront the country youth who goes to the city to earn his livelihood. He says: "The exigencies of life press down upon him and crowd him into paths that lead to demoralization and perhaps to outlawry. The undisciplined country lad bids good-by to his home, and there is danger that, a few years afterwards, his character and body will have been impaired or broken by the struggle. What a payment is this to his mother for her love and care! What has become of her solace in old age? Is there no tragedy in this? To me there is nothing more deeply tragic in American life. At home, in his own community, the boy would probably have done fairly well. In the big city his strength was not equal to the opposition and the temptation."

There is truth in what the bishop says, but there is another side to the picture. Whence come the strong men of the cities, the bankers, the railroad presidents, the merchant princes, the great preachers, the judges, and the men who direct affairs? A large percentage, perhaps a majority of them, were born and bred in the country. The farmer's son who has had the proper home-training has enough character and manliness not to yield to the evil fascinations of city life. A good mother's counsel is never forgotten by the man who makes his career a success. He cannot forget it and succeed. The population and the morals of our big cities would probably deteriorate but for the constant influx of new blood furnished by vigorous and sturdy young manhood and womanhood from the country.

Train up a child in the way he should go, and if there is anything in him, city life won't spoil him for usefulness to the world; if he has enough talents and energy his reward will undoubtedly be greater in the larger field. There are tragedies and failures in rural communities as well as in the cities. The dunce, the idler, and the characterless and shiftless man are doomed to failure anywhere.

Tom Johnson is talked of as the Democratic candidate for the presidency. He is just as good a man to defeat as the man the Democrats ran the last time.

The Filipino insurgents are subsiding into quietness, but their American brethren are plunging along the war-path at a furious rate.

Oom Paul Kruger talks despondently about the Boer war since he got out of Africa. Oom Paul is no long-range fighter.

Col. Guffey, of Pittsburg, is much luckier in business than in politics. He has just struck another Texas oil gusher.

HUGE COMBINE RUMORED.

Asserted as to Railroad Properties, in Which Hill is Interested.

New York, April 5.—The Mail and Express said yesterday:

"It was reported in Wall street today that papers are being prepared for a New Jersey corporation to hold a controlling interest in the stocks of the Erie, Burlington, Northern Pacific and Great Northern railways, the leading properties in which James J. Hill is interested.

"It is said the same plan will be followed as was adopted in the steel corporation, the shares of the former companies being exchanged for those of the constituent companies. The purpose is to affiliate the financial interests who are putting through the big deals to do so with less capital than would otherwise be required and also to give greater prominence to the big alliance. The total capital of the four companies mentioned is more than $550,000,000.

"James J. Hill was out of the city today and those associated with him expressed ignorance of such a scheme."

REV. JASPER'S FUNERAL

Body Lay In State the Day Before. Large Crowd at Funeral.

Richmond, Va., April 5.—The funeral of Rev. John Jasper, the famous negro preacher, occurred at Mount Zion church, of which he was pastor. The body lay in state in the heavily draped church all the day before. The services were attended by an enormous crowd. A portion of the edifice was reserved for white people and many were present. Prominent among the mourners were those whom the old man had antagonized during his life. The services consisted of hymns, special music, a Scripture lesson and four eulogies on the several aspects of Rev. Jasper's character. The congregation followed the body to Ham cemetery, where the interment took place in the family section.

SHOT FIRED AT CZAR?

Such a Report, but Truth of It is Doubted.

London, April 5.—A special from Vienna said a report was published there that an officer of the guards entered the czar's study and fired at him with a revolver. His majesty was not hit, and the officer committed suicide.

The story is doubted and is evidently a revival of the report contained in a dispatch to The Morning Leader, of this city, from Kieff, April 1, which said that an officer of the czar's household had attempted to assassinate his majesty by firing at him, missed the czar and then shot himself before he could be arrested.

Reduced Wages In England.

Middlesborough, England, April 5.—It is announced that the wages of the blast furnace men will be reduced 21 per cent for three months and that the wages of the Northumberland miners will be reduced 13 1/2 per cent.

Minister to Accept New Pastorate.

Grand Rapids, Mich., April 5.—Rev. J. Herman Randall, pastor of the First Baptist church, of this city, resigned to accept the $5,000 pastorate of the Walburton Avenue Baptist church, of Yonkers, N. Y. He will take his new charge about May 1.

An Unexpected Retort.

"Where," asked the female suffragist orator, "would man be today were it not for woman?"

She paused a moment and looked around the hall.

"I repeat," she said, "where would man be today were it not for woman?"

"He'd be in the garden of Eden eating strawberries," answered a voice from the gallery.—Boston Traveler.

Got What They Wanted.

Their Caller—I don't see why Count Pareschi and his American wife should quarrel.

Miss Davis—Their interests clash, do they not?

Their Caller—Not to any marked degree. She wanted a foreign alliance and he a foreign allowance, that's all.—Harlem Life.

RURAL FREE DELIVERY.

The rural free delivery mail routes are about to be established in the northern part of Columbiana county. This cannot fail to be a blessing to the people along the routes and yet, we are told, objections are being raised. Even one newspaper, which usually displays sounder judgment, doubts if free delivery will be a benefit. The farmers, it says, getting their mail regularly, and depending upon the carriers to do some of their small errands in town, will visit the stores less frequently and business may suffer. This is ridiculous reasoning.

The farmers will eat just as much and their grocery bills will be just as heavy, no matter whether they go to town twice a week or twice a month. And the same is true of the other supplies which they purchase from the local merchants. Perhaps they will be seen less frequently in the stores, but when they do come they will make larger purchases. How the merchants are going to lose anything we fail to see.

Then think of the advantages to the farmer, for whose benefit the rural delivery system is devised and put in operation. He is brought in close touch with the world. He can get his daily paper the day it is printed without leaving his work to go to the post office for it. He can keep himself closely informed on market conditions and the world's news in general. He will have more leisure to read, because he will save the time formerly taken up in trips to the store.

Rural free delivery is no longer an experiment. It has been tried in nearly every state in the union, and has been a success. Few communities fail to appreciate its advantages; or if they do so at the start the practical workings of the system soon dispose of all objections. It is a success elsewhere and it will be in Columbiana county. It is a promoter of pleasure, comfort and education. Under it the farmers and their families read more, write more and receive more mail matter. It is also an inducement to improve the roads, for the government will not establish a route over rabbit paths and holes in the mud. It is a good thing any way it is looked at, as those who enjoy its advantages are sure to discover.

TRAGEDIES AND LIFE FAILURES.

Bishop H. C. Potter, in a recent magazine article, sets forth in vigorous language the perils and pitfalls that confront the country youth who goes to the city to earn his livelihood. He says: "The exigencies of life press down upon him and crowd him into paths that lead to demoralization and perhaps to outlawry. The undisciplined country lad bids good-by to his home, and there is danger that, a few years afterwards, his character and body will have been impaired or broken by the struggle. What a payment is this to his mother for her love and care! What has become of her solace in old age? Is there no tragedy in this? To me there is nothing more deeply tragic in American life. At home, in his own community, the boy would probably have done fairly well. In the big city his strength was not equal to the opposition and the temptation."

There is truth in what the bishop says, but there is another side to the picture. Whence come the strong men of the cities, the bankers, the railroad presidents, the merchant princes, the great preachers, the judges, and the men who direct affairs? A large percentage, perhaps a majority of them, were born and bred in the country. The farmer's son who has had the proper home-training has enough character and manliness not to yield to the evil fascinations of city life. A good mother's counsel is never forgotten by the man who makes his career a success. He cannot forget it and succeed. The population and the morals of our big cities would probably deteriorate but for the constant influx of new blood furnished by vigorous and sturdy young manhood and womanhood from the country.

Train up a child in the way he should go, and if there is anything in him, city life won't spoil him for usefulness to the world; if he has enough talents and energy his reward will undoubtedly be greater in the larger field. There are tragedies and failures in rural communities as well as in the cities. The dunce, the idler, and the characterless and shiftless man are doomed to failure anywhere.

Tom Johnson is talked of as the Democratic candidate for the presidency. He is just as good a man to defeat as the man the Democrats ran the last time.

The Filipino insurgents are subsiding into quietness, but their American brethren are plunging along the war-path at a furious rate.

Oom Paul Kruger talks despondently about the Boer war since he got out of Africa. Oom Paul is no long-range fighter.

Col. Guffey, of Pittsburg, is much luckier in business than in politics. He has just struck another Texas oil gusher.

HUGE COMBINE RUMORED.

Asserted as to Railroad Properties, in Which Hill is Interested.

New York, April 5.—The Mail and Express said yesterday:

"It was reported in Wall street today that papers are being prepared for a New Jersey corporation to hold a controlling interest in the stocks of the Erie, Burlington, Northern Pacific and Great Northern railways, the leading properties in which James J. Hill is interested.

"It is said the same plan will be followed as was adopted in the steel corporation, the shares of the former companies being exchanged for those of the constituent companies. The purpose is to affiliate the financial interests who are putting through the big deals to do so with less capital than would otherwise be required and also to give greater prominence to the big alliance. The total capital of the four companies mentioned is more than $550,000,000.

"James J. Hill was out of the city today and those associated with him expressed ignorance of such a scheme."

MILL MAY START.

CHESTER PLANT MAY SOON BE PUT IN OPERATION.

Demand for Black Sheets So Great That the Idle Mills Are Being Started.

On account of the continued demand for black sheets, says the Pittsburgh Dispatch of this morning, the American Sheet Steel company may decide to start the new mill at Chester, W. Va., opposite East Liverpool, O., which it was proposed last year to abandon. The plant is of six mills capacity, and has never been in operation. It was completed last year by an independent company, which was later bought out by the combine. Since then it has been partially dismantled, some of the machinery being installed in the Wellsville, O., plant of the company, and some stored at Vandergrift, where the company has parts of four dismantled plants stored.

This week the company ordered four sheet mills and two sheet bar mills put in operation at Niles, O., which were idle for months, and preparations are said to be under way to put the Chester mill on part capacity.

STEEN-DONEHOO

Wedding of a Chester Doctor And a Young Lady of Crafton, Pa.

Pittsburg, April 5.—Miss Mary Elizabeth Steen, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Dickson Steen, of Creighton road, Crafton, and Dr. William S. P. Donehoo, of Chester, W. Va., were quietly married last evening at the home of the bride's parents, the Rev. E. R. Donehoo, D. D., pastor of the West End Presbyterian church, father of the bridegroom, officiating.

The house in Creighton road, which is one of the many pretty new residences in Crafton, was handsomely decorated. The bride was simply attired in white mousseline de soie, with trimmings of duchesse lace and handsome pearl ornaments. Her bouquet was of white carnations. Miss Matilda Dimling, of the East End, the maid of honor, wore a white gown of Persian lawn, with pink panne velvet trimmings, and carried pink carnations. Miss Sarah Ada Foster, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William G. Foster, of North Highland avenue, East End, acted as flower girl. She was also gowned in white and carried a large cluster bouquet of sweet peas. The three ushers were Robert L. Chess, of Crafton; Thomas D. Steen, Jr., and David Cameron Steen, brothers of the bride.

Following the wedding supper a large reception, for which 200 invitations had been issued, was held at the bride's home from 8 until 11. The young couple left after the reception on a southern wedding tour, and will on their return make their home in Chester, W. Va.

NEW DECORATING KILN.

INGENIOUS INVENTION ABOUT TO BE TESTED HERE.

Inventor Claims It Will Revolutionize the Mode of Burning Decorated Ware.

James E. Clarke, of Hanley, England, representing William Wade, an inventor of Staffordshire, has completed arrangements with a local firm for a test of what is known as "the Climax Continuous and Circular Decorating Kiln," one of which will be built in this city at an early date.

This kiln, which is entirely different from any kiln in use here, is built in the form of a circular tunnel, and is fitted with rails and iron trucks on wheels. The fire in the kiln is kept burning continually, and is so arranged that the heat grows stronger from the entrance of the tunnel until the middle is reached and then gradually grows cooler until the end is reached and the ware taken out.

When the kiln is first put in operation a single truck of ware is placed just inside the entrance of the tunnel. In 15 minutes it is moved forward the length of itself and another truck of ware put in its place.

This process is continued indefinitely, a new truck of ware being placed inside the tunnel every 15 minutes, and each preceding truck moved forward one space. It takes 22 trucks to fill the tunnel and it is just four hours from the time the first truck is placed inside the tunnel until it comes out at the other end, burned and cooled and ready for shipment. After this, one truck is placed inside and one taken out every 15 minutes. The advantages derived are economy in fuel and a great saving of time. It now requires about 18 hours to burn a kiln, while the ware in the "Climax" is burned in four hours, it is claimed.

The kiln has been used with success in England, where it was examined last summer by O. C. Vodrey, Frank Sebring and other manufacturers of this city. The experiment if successful here will revolutionize the mode of burning decorated ware.

DISPOSAL OF CHINESE FORTS.

Gen. Chaffee Said Commanders Were Considering—Asked Instructions.

Washington, April 5.—General Chaffee cabled the war department from Peking that the military commanders representing the foreign powers there were considering the question of disposing of the Chinese forts and of establishing fortified posts at proper intervals along the route from Peking to the sea. General Chaffee sought instructions for his guidance in the conference.

A rather difficult question was involved in General Chaffee's request for instructions. As to the treatment of Chinese fortifications no particular difficulty is involved, for the state department clearly set out its view that these should not be destroyed, but simply dismantled. As to the establishment of fortified posts, it was probable that the United States will on its part persist in the policy of declining to maintain a permanent military establishment in China.

Meanwhile the war department was pushing its preparations for the complete evacuation of China by American forces, save only the legation guard, and it was stated that everything will be in readiness to embark General Chaffee's army at Taku for Manila on May 30.

STEEN-DONEHOO

Wedding of a Chester Doctor And a Young Lady of Crafton, Pa.

Pittsburg, April 5.—Miss Mary Elizabeth Steen, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Dickson Steen, of Creighton road, Crafton, and Dr. William S. P. Donehoo, of Chester, W. Va., were quietly married last evening at the home of the bride's parents, the Rev. E. R. Donehoo, D. D., pastor of the West End Presbyterian church, father of the bridegroom, officiating.

The house in Creighton road, which is one of the many pretty new residences in Crafton, was handsomely decorated. The bride was simply attired in white mousseline de soie, with trimmings of duchesse lace and handsome pearl ornaments. Her bouquet was of white carnations. Miss Matilda Dimling, of the East End, the maid of honor, wore a white gown of Persian lawn, with pink panne velvet trimmings, and carried pink carnations. Miss Sarah Ada Foster, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William G. Foster, of North Highland avenue, East End, acted as flower girl. She was also gowned in white and carried a large cluster bouquet of sweet peas. The three ushers were Robert L. Chess, of Crafton; Thomas D. Steen, Jr., and David Cameron Steen, brothers of the bride.

Following the wedding supper a large reception, for which 200 invitations had been issued, was held at the bride's home from 8 until 11. The young couple left after the reception on a southern wedding tour, and will on their return make their home in Chester, W. Va.

NEW DECORATING KILN.

INGENIOUS INVENTION ABOUT TO BE TESTED HERE.

Inventor Claims It Will Revolutionize the Mode of Burning Decorated Ware.

James E. Clarke, of Hanley, England, representing William Wade, an inventor of Staffordshire, has completed arrangements with a local firm for a test of what is known as "the Climax Continuous and Circular Decorating Kiln," one of which will be built in this city at an early date.

This kiln, which is entirely different from any kiln in use here, is built in the form of a circular tunnel, and is fitted with rails and iron trucks on wheels. The fire in the kiln is kept burning continually, and is so arranged that the heat grows stronger from the entrance of the tunnel until the middle is reached and then gradually grows cooler until the end is reached and the ware taken out.

When the kiln is first put in operation a single truck of ware is placed just inside the entrance of the tunnel. In 15 minutes it is moved forward the length of itself and another truck of ware put in its place.

This process is continued indefinitely, a new truck of ware being placed inside the tunnel every 15 minutes, and each preceding truck moved forward one space. It takes 22 trucks to fill the tunnel and it is just four hours from the time the first truck is placed inside the tunnel until it comes out at the other end, burned and cooled and ready for shipment. After this, one truck is placed inside and one taken out every 15 minutes. The advantages derived are economy in fuel and a great saving of time. It now requires about 18 hours to burn a kiln, while the ware in the "Climax" is burned in four hours, it is claimed.

The kiln has been used with success in England, where it was examined last summer by O. C. Vodrey, Frank Sebring and other manufacturers of this city. The experiment if successful here will revolutionize the mode of burning decorated ware.

DISPOSAL OF CHINESE FORTS.

Gen. Chaffee Said Commanders Were Considering—Asked Instructions.

Washington, April 5.—General Chaffee cabled the war department from Pekin that the military commanders representing the foreign powers there were considering the question of disposing of the Chinese forts and of establishing fortified posts at proper intervals along the route from Pekin to the sea. General Chaffee sought instructions for his guidance in the conference.

A rather difficult question was involved in General Chaffee's request for instructions. As to the treatment of Chinese fortifications no particular difficulty is involved, for the state department clearly set out its view that these should not be destroyed, but simply dismantled. As to the establishment of fortified posts, it was probable that the United States will on its part persist in the policy of declining to maintain a permanent military establishment in China.

Meanwhile the war department was pushing its preparations for the complete evacuation of China by American forces, save only the legation guard, and it was stated that everything will be in readiness to embark General Chaffee's army at Taku for Manila on May 30.

Justice Jerome Scathingly Sizes

Murderer.

SAYS PATRICK CAN'T BE HELD

Unless the Prosecution Produces Cor-
roborative Evidence—Patrick Shows
Nerve by Reading Some of the Evidence Himself in Open Court.

New York, April 5.—There were at least two incidents during the cross-examination of Charles F. Jones, the valet secretary of Millionaire William Marsh Rice, which rose above the ordinary. One was a remark made by Justice Jerome, who presides at the hearing, and which probably shows why Lawyer Patrick, accused with Jones of the murder of the former Texan has all along taken the accusations of Jones against himself with a demeanor almost bordering on contempt.

Attorney Moore, for the defense, had asked that when the hearing closed for the day it be not resumed until Tuesday. Justice Jerome seemed willing and then added:

"It is necessary that Jones' testimony as to this murder should be corroborated. He being a self-confessed accomplice, his testimony alone is not enough upon which to hold Patrick."

"We understand that and we suppose the district attorney does, too."

Last night those who were watching the case closely were wondering what corroborative testimony the state will introduce to sustain the statements of Jones.

The other incident brought out in the clearest light was the indomitable nerve of Lawyer Patrick. In the face of the reiterated story of Jones that Patrick had instigated the forgeries and the actual murder the latter took his place in the court proceedings with the utmost nonchalance. At one point it became necessary that a statement made by Jones be read, and it was given into the hands of one of the counsel for the defense for that purpose. This was the statement in which the valet claimed Patrick killed Rice and which he had since denied. The reader hesitated and stumbled over the written words. Suddenly Patrick spoke up, exclaiming, "Here, I guess I can make it out; I'll read it."

This was agreed to, and in a loud, clear voice he read:

"P. got a towel and sponge and saturated the sponge with a colorless liquid he had in a bottle. Then he went into the room where 'R.' lay in bed. I (Jones) was not in the room, but opened the door and peeped in."

"P. was standing over 'R.' with the cone-shaped towel in his hand and he pressed it down over 'R.'s face."

Patrick was still reading, with no show of emotion, when Justice Jerome ordered a recess for luncheon.

The 'Ps' and 'Rs' in the statement stand for Patrick and Rice.

At another point in the proceedings Justice Jerome gave his estimate of Jones with characteristic terseness. Attorney Moore had been racking the witness with questions, all tending to bring out the valet's lying propensities. He showed that Jones had lied to and deceived his own father when the latter called on him in the hospital after he had attempted suicide; that he had told untruths to Assistant District Attorney Osborne, and that he had lied to his own counsel. Here Justice Jerome struck in with the remark:

"This witness is a weak, wicked and unfortunate man. He is a self-confessed murderer and deserves contempt, but I won't allow you to insult him."

There was very little new matter brought out at the hearing. The whole of the cross-examination of Mr. Moore, who is Patrick's personal counsel, was confined to showing up Jones as a man who could not be believed. When court adjourned it was until next Tuesday.

Columbus, O., April 5.—It was stated that Rhoades & Co., of Pittsburg, who are believed to be the promoters, secured options on 23 plants in the Mahoning and Shenango valleys, and at Cleveland, Buffalo and Pittsburg, which they will attempt to consolidate with a capitalization of probably $25,000,000.

Exceptions to Magee's Nomination. Harrisburg, April 5.—Exceptions were filed in the Dauphin county court by James A. Stranahan, of Harrisburg, to the certificate of nomination of W. A. Magee, Jr., of Pittsburg, Republican nominee for senator in the forty-third district, to succeed the late C. L. Magee. The exceptions aver that the certificate is illegal, for the reason that it was not filed within the time required by the ballot law. The court fixed Saturday morning for a hearing.

BANDITS GOT $125.

ALSO SECURED LARGE AMOUNT OF NON-NEGOTIABLE PAPER.

Missed Nearly $30,000, at Chardon, O.
Brave Fight by Town Watchman.

Chardon, O., April 5.—The Citizens' bank was robbed of $125. After exploding 15 charges of dynamite the safe broke and the men made their escape.

Night Watchman Norman Pomeroy was standing in front of the bank when he saw two strangers approaching. When close enough they sprang upon him simultaneously and bore him to the ground. Two more soon came to his assistance. Pomeroy struggled desperately, getting to his feet again, only to go down under the weight of numbers. He thrashed the four about on the sidewalk and then out into the muddy street.

Finally he got his right arm free and drew his revolver. At the discharge one of his assailants sprang back with a yell of rage, his left arm hanging limp as though broken. The next moment Pomeroy lost consciousness from the effects of a violent blow on the head. When he recovered he found himself in the bank building, bound hand and foot, and a gag in his mouth. He lay there a witness to all the operations. At each explosion the robbers retired to places of safety. Pomeroy lay in an exposed place, and no attention was paid to him except that the man with the broken arm occasionally gave him a kick in the ribs as he passed.

The robbers were a long time getting into the vault. They gathered up the loose coins lying about and then went at the strong box. They exploded several charges, but could not force it. Through it all the people of the town slept. The gang finally escaped to a handcar towards Painesville, leaving Pomeroy bound and gagged on the floor.

The robbers only succeeded in gaining entrance to one compartment of the big safe. In another part, which was not reached, it is said nearly $30,000 was stored.

Two men were arrested at Willoughby upon the charge of being members of the gang which robbed the Chardon bank.

After an investigation Cashier C. L. Smith, of the bank, made this statement concerning the booty secured by the cracksmen:

"The robbers got $125 in gold, $20,000 in certificates held against the bank by individuals and $25,000 or $30,000 worth of mortgages and other securities belonging to individuals. None of the paper taken is negotiable. There was $30,000 in currency in an inner vault, which they did not get. The books and records of the bank were not disturbed."

A posse of citizens was scouring the surrounding country for the robbers. It was believed that some coins found in the possession of two men arrested at Willoughby are a part of those taken from the bank. The men also had several sticks of dynamite in their pockets.

LARGE AND INTERESTED.

Such Are the Audiences That Hear Evangelist Kaylor.

Evangelist Kaylor still continues to preach to large and interested audiences in the United Presbyterian church. His text last night was the Savior's declaration to those who hesitated to accept His doctrine: "If any man will do his will, he shall know of the doctrine, whether it be of God or whether I speak of myself." John 7:17. His theme was that knowledge of spiritual truth comes by obedience to its demands. Doubts, the product of sin, dissolve by doing. Assurance of the reality of divine things comes by action in accord with the divine will as revealed in the inspired word.

The evangelist made an earnest appeal to all who had not done so, to put the declaration of the text to a test by doing the things the Lord commands. Meeting tonight at 8 o'clock. Sunrise prayer meeting Sunday morning. The public is welcomed to their services.

VICTORY FOR COUNTESS

New York Supreme Court Dissolves Injunction Against Gould Trustees.

New York, April 5.—The appellate division of the supreme court handed down a decision dissolving the injunction in the case of Anton J. Dittmar against George J. Gould et al. trustees under the will of Jay Gould. Under the decision of the appellate division, the trustees may pay the Countess Castellane her entire income.

Ex-Judge John F. Dillon, chief counsel for the Gould trustees, said: "The majority of the court held that the party substantially interested here is the Countess Castellane; that the complaint showed on its face that she was without the jurisdiction of the state of New York and within the jurisdiction of the republic of France, and that they could not obtain service upon her within the state of New York; that in the absence of service of process upon the Countess Castellane in the state of New York, the courts of New York had and could have no jurisdiction to determine either whether she owed the debt or what was a proper allowance for her support; in fact, could determine nothing which effected her substantial rights in any case in which she was not served with process."

16TH YEAR. NO. 252.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., FRIDAY, APRIL 5, 1901.

NEW RAILROADS IN EASTERN OHIO

The Toledo-Mingo Junction Line Said to Be a Certainty at an Early Date.

WORK TO BE PUSHED RAPIDLY

Proposed Erie Railroad Branch to Pittsburg From Lisbon Said to Be One of the Plans of J. J. Hill, Making the Shortest Route to Chicago.

Pittsburg, April 5.—"So far as I know it is the plan of the Pittsburg, Toledo & Western railroad, which was incorporated yesterday at Columbus, O., to go right ahead with an independent road, building it from Toledo to Mingo, on the Ohio river, or a point near Mingo. From that point it will cross the Ohio and make connections with the Pittsburg & Carnegie," said J. W. Patterson, an engineer of this city, one of the incorporators of the road, yesterday. "We have carried our plans along well so far. The Pittsburg & Carnegie was incorporated at Harrisburg quietly in January, and all we wish now is action by the city councils upon the ordinance that will give us our way into this city. "Just as soon as possible after the passage of this ordinance the work of construction will be started, and it is the present intention to build the road with all possible speed. With the number of men that will be placed at work it seems to me possible that the line to Mingo, on the Ohio river, will be finished within the year. From there a bridge will be built across the Ohio. I know of absolutely no arrangements with the Wheeling & Lake Erie railroad that are planned by this railroad. It is an independent line, and we will welcome connections with all other lines.

"The road is intended to serve all the purposes of a railroad. It will, naturally do a large coal business in the region through which it will pass between here and the Ohio, but it will also go after the iron and steel as well as general freight and passenger business."

The New York correspondent of the Commercial Gazette, in speaking of Erie railroad improvements to be carried out in accordance with the plans of J. J. Hill, who, it is said, proposes to spend $5,000,000 or $6,000,000 on the road, says:

"One of the incidental improvements of the Erie system will be the construction of a branch line into Pittsburg. This line is to be built from Lisbon, and will be about 45 miles long. Upon its completion the Erie will have a line between Pittsburg and Cleveland only 126 miles long. By building another line from Lisbon to Sterling the Erie will have the shortest route to Chicago."

A WELLSVILLE INVENTOR

Has Designed an Automatic Street Car Brake And Will Have It Patented.

D. E. Brockett, of Wellsville, has applied for a patent for a brake intended for use on street cars. Mr. Brockett began work on the brake after the accident on the Calcutta road car line in East Liverpool, in which James Christy, of that city, a motorman, was killed.

The brake is a pair of steel shoes which are placed in front of the rear wheels of the car. When it is necessary to use the brake the motorman releases it by means of a brake wheel in the cab of the car. The shoes then grip both the wheel and the rail and stop the car. The top of the shoe rises to a point about the middle of the wheel.

The brake also works automatically, and this is its most valuable feature. Mr. Brockett intends to explain the brake to the manufacturers of street railway cars, and he hopes to have a car equipped with his brake on exhibition at the Pan-American exposition at Buffalo this summer. Mr. Brockett's son and C. B. Craig are interested in the invention.

MAY BE A BREAK.

HOD CARRIERS' TROUBLE LIKELY TO END SOON.

Four of the Thirty Members Are Said to Favor a Compromise.

From present indications the prospects for a break in the hod carriers' strike are good.

There are some 30 members in the union, and the entire number, with the exception of four, are colored men. It is said that the white members are not nearly so radical as the negroes, and would favor a compromise if it were possible to effect one. The colored portion of the membership will not agree to this, but insist upon remaining in their original position and stand out for the uniform price of $2.50 per day.

The four white men were in favor of a compromise that will make the wages $2.25, and believe if this proposition is made they will be put to work by the contractors at once.

WILL IT BE NICE OR MARSHALL?

This Question Will Likely Be Settled at a Caucus This Evening.

A DEADLOCK IS POSSIBLE

Although a Majority of Those Who Are Apparently on the Inside Maintain That Nice Has a Sure Thing. Another Caucus Monday.

The old members of council who remain in the body, together with those chosen at the recent election, will caucus at the fire station this evening.

It has been the custom for many years to arrange the affairs of the new organization in caucus, and thus avoid the necessary annoyance of contests and wrangles over the presidency and various other matters which invariably require time to settle.

It was stated yesterday that the race for the presidency had narrowed down to a two-sided fight, and the contest would be between Nice and Marshall. A man who claims to be on the inside made the statement that Mr. Horwell, of the Third ward was the only member who had not yet disclosed his preference, and that the race was so close that, should Mr. Horwell decide to support Nice, his would be the vote needed to elect him, while if he would vote for Marshall it would be an even split—five and five—and the mayor would have the deciding vote.

From what could be learned of the situation aside from this, not much credence is given the opinion outlined above. As matters now stand, it looks very much as though Nice would be the man with a good safe majority.

One of the new members said today: "Dr. Marshall has made one of the best presiding officers that ever occupied the position in the city council, but if his position is a good thing to have, it should be distributed among the whole membership, who have just as much right to enjoy the better offices as the doctor. On the other hand, if the presidency is not a desirable berth, there is no reason why some of the other members should not bear their share of the responsibilities and annoyances connected with the position."

However, the agony will be over after tonight's meeting, as it is confidently expected that when the test of strength is canvassed this evening the aspirant having the largest following will have a sufficient number of friends to make his election on next Tuesday an assured fact.

City Clerk Hanley today issued a call for a caucus to be held on Monday night. This call is authorized by President Marshall.

ELKS' INSTALLATION.

New Officers Enter Upon Their Duties—An Enjoyable Social Session.

The local lodge of Elks installed officers at their meeting last night, and after the business of the session was completed a very enjoyable social session was held. The officers installed are as follows:

Exalted ruler, Ed Carson; esteemed leading knight, Ed Gould; loyal knight, Frank McNutt; lecturing knight, J. J. Rose; secretary, J. S. Hilbert; treasurer, G. Bendheim; tyler, James Early; trustee, Henry Joseph.

About 40 members were present and an elaborate banquet was served. Henry Smith acted as toastmaster, and addresses were made by a number of the members present, the remarks of Mr. Riley, a visitor from Detroit, being one of the pleasing features of the evening's entertainment. A number of other visitors were in attendance from abroad.

A BRIDE OF LAST MAY.

MRS. MARY HULME COMPLAINS OF ILL TREATMENT.

Husband Struck And Choked Her And Used a Shotgun—Another Divorce-Seeker.

Lisbon, April 5.—(Special.)—Mary A. Hulme, of East Liverpool, wants the court to grant her an order for alimony against Arthur A. Hulme. They were married only last May. Less than two months ago she alleges that he struck her with his fist, choked her and called her vile names. She says he drove her from the house with a shotgun. Since this time they have not lived together, the plaintiff earning her own living. Hulme owns lot No. 3184 in Bradshaw's second addition and one Ralph Scragg has money in his possession due him as wages. The wife wants alimony and an injunction restraining Hulme from disposing of his property.

Lizzie L. Wallace, of Salem, has sued for a divorce from Charles R. Wallace. They were married in 1895 and have three children. The wife accuses Wallace of gross neglect of duty for several years. During the past two years she states that she has been compelled to keep boarders to support herself and children. She says she owns all the household furniture and has reason to believe that the defendant is about to dispose of it unless the court will restrain him. She also asks the custody of her children.

The assignment for this week in court has gone under, and Judge Robinson left this morning for his home in Ravenna. Court convenes next Monday afternoon at 1 o'clock, when Judge Hole will be on the bench.

TILE COMBINE

Jersey Corporation Chartered With the Object of Controlling the Industry.

Trenton, N. J., April 5.—The American Tile company, whose object is said to be to absorb the leading tile manufacturing plants in the country, has been incorporated in the office of the secretary of state. The capital stock authorized by the charter is only $50,000. This amount, it is understood, will be increased if the proposed deal is successful.

Among the concerns which are expected to be absorbed if the present plans of the syndicate are carried out are the Trent Tile Works, of this city, and the Robertson Art Tile Works, of Morrisville. Propositions looking toward the purchase of these plants have already been made.

While the purpose of the newly formed company is admittedly to form a gigantic tile syndicate by absorbing other concerns, men who are closely connected with the tile industry are inclined to be skeptical as to the final outcome. The enterprise is backed by New York capitalists.

TURNERS AND HANDLERS

The programs are out for the entertainment to be given by local union No. 10 in the hall over the postoffice next Wednesday evening.

The committee having the affair in charge have been at work for the past week and no pains have been spared to make the affair a complete success.

The program arranged is as follows: Address, T. J. Duffy; vocal solo, Mrs. Charles Dawson; selection, C. C. quartet; piano solo, Miss Lizzie Hamill; recitation, Miss Rigby; selection, Ormes Bros.' orchestra; baritone solo, Mr. James Wheatley; piano descriptive, Hatch Pollock, Edgell Swinge-wood; recitation, Miss Katherine Hickey; vocal solo, Jos. Simpson; recitation, Leroy Orr; vocal solo, Albert Taylor; vocal solo, Miss Katherine McKeever; refreshments; selection, Ormes Bros.' orchestra.

Home Again.

Harold Anderson and Jesse Hanley returned to their home in this city yesterday afternoon after a visit with relatives at East Palestine and Rochester.

DID NOT TURN IN ALL OF THE MONEY

Joseph Hartz Was Short In His Accounts and Tried to Leave Town.

WAS PULLED FROM A TRAIN

Tried to Get Away From Officers But Was Too Drunk—Cash Was All Gone But 50 Cents And He May Go to the Works.

Business at police headquarters livened up to some extent and three arrests were recorded last evening.

Joseph Hartz came to this city three weeks ago from Wheeling, and secured employment. He has been drinking heavily for several days and yesterday got himself into a predicament that will probably land him in the workhouse.

Not long ago Hartz secured employment with the Bagley company, selling produce. He had been out with the wagon yesterday, and evidently did well, as the vehicle was empty when he left it at the store on Second street.

His absence was not noticed for some time, but when discovered it was also found that Joe was about $4.50 short in his accounts.

A search was made for the missing man, but it was not until the west-bound train was about to pull out that he was seen seated on the rear steps of the train, with a very fair-sized jag. He had a ticket for Bridgeport, and when ordered by W. W. Bagley to get off he refused to comply. Mr. Bagley appealed to the brakeman, but he refused to do anything. Hartz got off the train of his own accord and staggered up the platform toward Broadway. Meanwhile Bagley had secured the assistance of Officer Mahoney and together they went after the man. The case proved anything but exciting. Hartz was so drunk that he could not run, although he made several attempts. The officer caught him shortly after he made the turn at Cook street, heading for the bridge. He was taken to jail and searched. But 50 cents was found on him, and the claim of Bagley's went unsatisfied.

However, a charge of drunk and disorderly was placed against him, and Mayor Davidson assessed a fine of $9.60. Unless he pays up today he will be sent to the works in the morning.

Just as all arrangements had been completed to send John Brick to the workhouse this morning his wife and boys came to his rescue with the necessary money to pay his fine of $9.60. John had a narrow escape, and he appreciates it.

Joe Kennedy and Toby Burke, who get into trouble every time they get together, were doing a few of the up-town places last evening and as a result were pretty well loaded when Officers Gill and Aufderheide ran across them. They were permitted to sleep in the city jail. Mayor Davidson fined them each $9.60 and they arranged to pay.

EAST END.

A STAGNANT POND

An East End Nuisance That the People Want to See Abolished.

A number of the residents of First and Virginia avenues are complaining of a pond of stagnant water that extends from Holsman's stable to the fire station and from Virginia avenue to the alley. Under present conditions it is likely to remain there all summer.

The pond is fed from the Boyce spring, which is a very strong one and will cover several lots in the low-ground before it is high enough for a natural outlet. The water from this spring until lately was drained by a pipe and was utilized for the raising of water cress by Aaron McDonald.

When Mr. McDonald moved to Delaware the pipes were still left in the ground, but a part of them have been broken in and filled up and now the water has no outlet. It is said that a complaint will be made to the city council concerning the matter.

FIRST ADDITION.

Supplee Company Plot Consists of 56 Lots.

A plot of the first addition of the Supplee Land company has just been prepared. The plot comprises 56 lots, 80x33 1-3, and extends from the railroad to Ohio avenue.

The plot does not include the Thompson mound, and, although the streets and alleys will be graded, it is not thought the mound will be disturbed until the second addition is laid off.

OKLAHOMA AMAZONS

Jealous Women Get Their Fighting Blood Up and Have a Bloody Battle.

ONE FALLS BADLY WOUNDED

Anxious to Recover to Again Fight Her Opponent—Husbands Were Hunting Each Other to Kill and Partisans Burnishing Up Weapons.

Newkirk, Okla., April 5.—Mrs. Ella Zeiglin and Mrs. Daughson, living near this city, fought a duel with revolvers, and Mrs. Zeiglin is now in a hospital, dangerously but not necessarily fatally wounded. Two of her opponent's shots lodged in her breast, but she was able to talk volubly and was anxious to recover, that she might again fight Mrs. Daughson.

Mrs. Daughson lives on a farm just south of the city, and Mrs. Zeiglin had frequently endeavored to arouse the temper of her neighbor by various means, the most effectual being the claim that she (Mrs. Zeiglin) could take Mrs. Daughson's husband away from his wife any time she wished.

Mrs. Daughson finally appealed to the courts and Mrs. Zeiglin was fined $300 for trespassing upon the Daughson property and inciting trouble. As soon as she paid the fine Mrs. Zeiglin drove out to the Daughson home, smarting under the loss of money, and the criticism of the trial judge. Riding up to the door of the Daughson home, she cared her rival to come out and fight a duel.

Mrs. Daughson promptly accepted the challenge and came out, armed with a revolver. The women then faced each other at about 50 feet and began shooting, the signal being given by a daughter of Mrs. Zeiglin who had accompanied her from town. Each fired three shots without effect. Then Mrs. Daughson got the range and fired two shot in quick succession, both striking Mrs. Zeiglin in the breast. She fell and Mrs. Daughson assisted in carrying her into the house, where a physician dressed her wounds, after which she was conveyed to a hospital.

The husbands of the women were seeking each other, vowing to kill on sight. Some of the partisans of each woman were also burnishing up their weapons and seeking an excuse to shoot somebody. During the trial the two women attempted several times to fly at each other and fight it out then and there.

Mrs. Zeiglin said her revolver refused to work after the first three shots and that she will make a better record when next she faces Mrs. Daughson. The latter had not been arrested and grimly remarked that she had taken the precaution to reload her revolver and oil its joints, and that she could be found at home by anyone looking for an argument.

THE ELOPERS FOILED

President of a Blue Grass Country College Fired Upon Young Gallants.

HE PREVENTED FIVE MARRIAGES

Grand Jury at Bowling Green, Ky., Investigated and Love-Lorn Young Ladies May Have to Appear as Witnesses at a Trial.

Owensboro, Ky., April 5.—A sensation that happened in Bowling Green was given attention by the grand jury and became public property, despite endeavors of a number of people of influence to have the details kept secret. The affair comprehended an interrupted elopement of five young women from Potter college, Bowling Green, one of the prominent seminaries for young women in the south.

One night recently five young men, all members of wealthy families, drove in carriages to the college, and, with ladders, aided four young women to leave the building by climbing through second-story windows. While assisting the fifth to reach the ground the young men made so much noise that President Cabell was roused. Seizing a shotgun, the president began shooting at the young men, who returned his fire. Two of the young men were wounded, but the president was not hurt. The girls screamed, but returned to their rooms, and the swains went away without them. The girls are members of the best families in Kentucky, and if indictments shall be found it is probable they will have to appear as witnesses at the trial.

SLOWLY RISING.

The River 22 Feet This Morning. Only One Towboat Up Yesterday.

The marks at the wharf this morning registered 22 feet and rising very slowly. It is thought the 25 foot stage will not be reached. The Greenwood and Lorena passed up last night, the Ben Hur passed down and the Keystone State will be up tonight. The Greenwood last night brought 35 passengers, 10 tons of straw and 3,000 hoop poles to this city. The only towboat to pass this city yesterday was the John W. Ailes. It went up with a large tow of empties.

Word was received in the city this morning that David Shumaker had died at his home in Beaver from blood poisoning, aged 74 years. He was born in Huntingdon county, Pa., and went to Beaver with his parents in 1832, having resided there ever since. He was a mate for 35 years on different passenger steamers plying the Ohio, Mississippi and other southern rivers, and was well known to the rivermen in this city.

NEW SEBRING PLANT.

POTTERY WILL BE 130x500 AND HAVE 12 KILNS.

Expected to Employ 300 People And Add 1,000 to Sebring's Population.

Sebring, April 5.—Evas Sebring, manager of the Klondike pottery, East Liverpool, was in town yesterday and in an interview stated that a duplicate plant will be erected in Sebring at once, and will continue to be operated as the French China company under his management. Work will be begun this week. Already surveyors are on the grounds.

The plant will be 130x500 feet, and 12 kilns will be built—six for green ware and six for decorated ware. It will employ about 300 people. This latest plant will be erected just west of the Sebring pottery plant. It is expected that this new industry will bring in at least 1,000 more people here the coming summer.

LINK IN THE LINE.

Trolley Road From Pittsburg to Monaca May Extend Into Ohio.

Pittsburg, April 5.—Work will probably soon be started on a new electric line from Coraopolis to Monaca, which will go through a large territory suitable for manufacturing and building purposes. The road will be 12 miles long, and the surveys for it were made some time ago.

The new railway is said to be a link in the proposed traction road from Cleveland to Pittsburg by way of Beaver Falls, Salem, Sebring, Alliance, Ravenna, Kent, and from Kent to Cleveland. Already the Northern Ohio Traction company is operating north of Alliance. Several large manufacturing concerns have looked over this territory with a view to building. The new traction road will parallel the Pittsburg & Lake Erie railroad.

RURAL FREE DELIVERY.

The rural free delivery mail routes are about to be established in the northern part of Columbiana county. This cannot fail to be a blessing to the people along the routes and yet, we are told, objections are being raised. Even one newspaper, which usually displays sounder judgment, doubts if free delivery will be a benefit. The farmers, it says, getting their mail regularly, and depending upon the carriers to do some of their small errands in town, will visit the stores less frequently and business may suffer. This is ridiculous reasoning.

The farmers will eat just as much and their grocery bills will be just as heavy, no matter whether they go to town twice a week or twice a month. And the same is true of the other supplies which they purchase from the local merchants. Perhaps they will be seen less frequently in the stores, but when they do come they will make larger purchases. How the merchants are going to lose anything we fail to see.

Then think of the advantages to the farmer, for whose benefit the rural delivery system is devised and put in operation. He is brought in close touch with the world. He can get his daily paper the day it is printed without leaving his work to go to the post-office for it. He can keep himself closely informed on market conditions and the world's news in general. He will have more leisure to read, because he will save the time formerly taken up in trips to the store.

Rural free delivery is no longer an experiment. It has been tried in nearly every state in the union, and has been a success. Few communities fail to appreciate its advantages; or if they do so at the start the practical workings of the system soon dispose of all objections. It is a success elsewhere and it will be in Columbiana county. It is a promoter of pleasure, comfort and education. Under it the farmers and their families read more, write more and receive more mail matter. It is also an inducement to improve the roads, for the government will not establish a route over rabbit paths and holes in the mud. It is a good thing any way it is looked at, as those who enjoy its advantages are sure to discover.

TRAGEDIES AND LIFE FAILURES.

Bishop H. C. Potter, in a recent magazine article, sets forth in vigorous language the perils and pitfalls that confront the country youth who goes to the city to earn his livelihood. He says: "The exigencies of life press down upon him and crowd him into paths that lead to demoralization and perhaps to outlawry. The undisciplined country lad bids good-by to his home, and there is danger that, a few years afterwards, his character and body will have been impaired or broken by the struggle. What a payment is this to his mother for her love and care! What has become of her solace in old age? Is there no tragedy in this? To me there is nothing more deeply tragic in American life. At home, in his own community, the boy would probably have done fairly well. In the big city his strength was not equal to the opposition and the temptation."

There is truth in what the bishop says, but there is another side to the picture. Whence come the strong men of the cities, the bankers, the railroad presidents, the merchant princes, the great preachers, the judges, and the men who direct affairs? A large percentage, perhaps a majority of them, were born and bred in the country. The farmer's son who has had the proper home-training has enough character and manliness not to yield to the evil fascinations of city life. A good mother's counsel is never forgotten by the man who makes his career a success. He cannot forget it and succeed. The population and the morals of our big cities would probably deteriorate but for the constant influx of new blood furnished by vigorous and sturdy young manhood and womanhood from the country.

Train up a child in the way he should go, and if there is anything in him, city life won't spoil him for usefulness to the world; if he has enough talents and energy his reward will undoubtedly be greater in the larger field. There are tragedies and failures in rural communities as well as in the cities. The dunce, the idler, and the characterless and shiftless man are doomed to failure anywhere.

Tom Johnson is talked of as the Democratic candidate for the presidency. He is just as good a man to defeat as the man the Democrats ran the last time.

The Filipino insurgents are subsiding into quietness, but their American brethren are plunging along the war-path at a furious rate.

Oom Paul Kruger talks despondently about the Boer war since he got out of Africa. Oom Paul is no long-range fighter.

Col. Guffey, of Pittsburg, is much luckier in business than in politics. He has just struck another Texas oil gusher.

HUGE COMBINE RUMORED.

Asserted as to Railroad Properties, in Which Hill is Interested.

New York, April 5.—The Mail and Express said yesterday:

"It was reported in Wall street today that papers are being prepared for a New Jersey corporation to hold a controlling interest in the stocks of the Erie, Burlington, Northern Pacific and Great Northern railways, the leading properties in which James J. Hill is interested.

"It is said the same plan will be followed as was adopted in the steel corporation, the shares of the former companies being exchanged for those of the constituent companies. The purpose is to affiliate the financial interests who are putting through the big deals to do so with less capital than would otherwise be required and also to give greater prominence to the big alliance. The total capital of the four companies mentioned is more than $550,000,000.

"James J. Hill was out of the city today and those associated with him expressed ignorance of such a scheme."

REV. JASPER'S FUNERAL

Body Lay In State the Day Before. Large Crowd at Funeral.

Richmond, Va., April 5.—The funeral of Rev. John Jasper, the famous negro preacher, occurred at Mount Zion church, of which he was pastor. The body lay in state in the heavily draped church all the day before. The services were attended by an enormous crowd. A portion of the edifice was reserved for white people and many were present. Prominent among the mourners were those whom the old man had antagonized during his life. The services consisted of hymns, special music, a Scripture lesson and four eulogies on the several aspects of Rev. Jasper's character. The congregation followed the body to Ham cemetery, where the interment took place in the family section.

SHOT FIRED AT CZAR?

Such a Report, but Truth of It is Doubted.

London, April 5.—A special from Vienna said a report was published there that an officer of the guards entered the czar's study and fired at him with a revolver. His majesty was not hit, and the officer committed suicide.

The story is doubted and is evidently a revival of the report contained in a dispatch to The Morning Leader, of this city, from Kiev, April 1, which said that an officer of the czar's household had attempted to assassinate his majesty by firing at him, missed the czar and then shot himself before he could be arrested.

MILL MAY START.

CHESTER PLANT MAY SOON BE PUT IN OPERATION.

Demand for Black Sheets So Great That the Idle Mills Are Being Started.

On account of the continued demand for black sheets, says the Pittsburgh Dispatch of this morning, the American Sheet Steel company may decide to start the new mill at Chester, W. Va., opposite East Liverpool, O., which it was proposed last year to abandon. The plant is of six mills capacity, and has never been in operation. It was completed last year by an independent company, which was later bought out by the combine. Since then it has been partially dismantled, some of the machinery being installed in the Wellsville, O., plant of the company, and some stored at Vandergrift, where the company has parts of four dismantled plants stored.

This week the company ordered four sheet mills and two sheet bar mills put in operation at Niles, O., which were idle for months, and preparations are said to be under way to put the Chester mill on part capacity.

STEEN-DONEHOO

Wedding of a Chester Doctor And a Young Lady of Crafton, Pa.

Pittsburg, April 5.—Miss Mary Elizabeth Steen, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Dickson Steen, of Creighton road, Crafton, and Dr. William S. P. Donehoo, of Chester, W. Va., were quietly married last evening at the home of the bride's parents, the Rev. E. R. Donehoo, D. D., pastor of the West End Presbyterian church, father of the bridegroom, officiating.

The house in Creighton road, which is one of the many pretty new residences in Crafton, was handsomely decorated. The bride was simply attired in white mousseline de soie, with trimmings of duchesse lace and handsome pearl ornaments. Her bouquet was of white carnations. Miss Matilda Dimling, of the East End, the maid of honor, wore a white gown of Persian lawn, with pink panne velvet trimmings, and carried pink carnations. Miss Sarah Ada Foster, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William G. Foster, of North Highland avenue, East End, acted as flower girl. She was also gowned in white and carried a large cluster bouquet of sweet peas. The three ushers were Robert L. Chess, of Crafton; Thomas D. Steen, Jr., and David Cameron Steen, brothers of the bride.

Following the wedding supper a large reception, for which 200 invitations had been issued, was held at the bride's home from 8 until 11. The young couple left after the reception on a southern wedding tour, and will on their return make their home in Chester, W. Va.

NEW DECORATING KILN.

INGENIOUS INVENTION ABOUT TO BE TESTED HERE.

Inventor Claims It Will Revolutionize the Mode of Burning Decorated Ware.

James E. Clarke, of Hanley, England, representing William Wade, an inventor of Staffordshire, has completed arrangements with a local firm for a test of what is known as "the Climax Continuous and Circular Decorating Kiln," one of which will be built in this city at an early date.

This kiln, which is entirely different from any kiln in use here, is built in the form of a circular tunnel, and is fitted with rails and iron trucks on wheels. The fire in the kiln is kept burning continually, and is so arranged that the heat grows stronger from the entrance of the tunnel until the middle is reached and then gradually grows cooler until the end is reached and the ware taken out.

When the kiln is first put in operation a single truck of ware is placed just inside the entrance of the tunnel. In 15 minutes it is moved forward the length of itself and another truck of ware put in its place.

This process is continued indefinitely, a new truck of ware being placed inside the tunnel every 15 minutes, and each preceding truck moved forward one space. It takes 22 trucks to fill the tunnel and it is just four hours from the time the first truck is placed inside the tunnel until it comes out at the other end, burned and cooled and ready for shipment. After this, one truck is placed inside and one taken out every 15 minutes. The advantages derived are economy in fuel and a great saving of time. It now requires about 18 hours to burn a kiln, while the ware in the "Climax" is burned in four hours, it is claimed.

The kiln has been used with success in England, where it was examined last summer by O. C. Vodrey, Frank Sebring and other manufacturers of this city. The experiment if successful here will revolutionize the mode of burning decorated ware.

DISPOSAL OF CHINESE FORTS.

Gen. Chaffee Said Commanders Were Considering—Asked Instructions.

Washington, April 5.—General Chaffee cabled the war department from Peking that the military commanders representing the foreign powers there were considering the question of disposing of the Chinese forts and of establishing fortified posts at proper intervals along the route from Peking to the sea. General Chaffee sought instructions for his guidance in the conference.

A rather difficult question was involved in General Chaffee's request for instructions. As to the treatment of Chinese fortifications no particular difficulty is involved, for the state department clearly set out its view that these should not be destroyed, but simply dismantled. As to the establishment of fortified posts, it was probable that the United States will on its part persist in the policy of declining to maintain a permanent military establishment in China.

Meanwhile the war department was pushing its preparations for the complete evacuation of China by American forces, save only the legation guard, and it was stated that everything will be in readiness to embark General Chaffee's army at Taku for Manila on May 30.

Murderer.

SAYS PATRICK CAN'T BE HELD

Unless the Prosecution Produces Cor-
roborative Evidence—Patrick Shows
Nerve by Reading Some of the Evidence Himself in Open Court.

New York, April 5.—There were at least two incidents during the cross-examination of Charles F. Jones, the valet secretary of Millionaire William Marsh Rice, which rose above the ordinary. One was a remark made by Justice Jerome, who presides at the hearing, and which probably shows why Lawyer Patrick, accused with Jones of the murder of the former Texan has all along taken the accusations of Jones against himself with a demeanor almost bordering on contempt.

Attorney Moore, for the defense, had asked that when the hearing closed for the day it be not resumed until Tuesday. Justice Jerome seemed willing and then added: "It is necessary that Jones' testimony as to this murder should be corroborated. He being a self-confessed accomplice, his testimony alone is not enough upon which to hold Patrick."

"We understand that and we suppose the district attorney does, too." Last night those who were watching the case closely were wondering what corroborative testimony the state will introduce to sustain the statements of Jones.

The other incident brought out in the clearest light was the indomitable nerve of Lawyer Patrick. In the face of the reiterated story of Jones that Patrick had instigated the forgeries and the actual murder the latter took his place in the court proceedings with the utmost nonchalance. At one point it became necessary that a statement made by Jones be read, and it was given into the hands of one of the counsel for the defense for that purpose. This was the statement in which the valet claimed Patrick killed Rice and which he had since denied. The reader hesitated and stumbled over the written words. Suddenly Patrick spoke up, exclaiming, "Here, I guess I can make it out; I'll read it."

This was agreed to, and in a loud, clear voice he read:

"P. got a towel and sponge and saturated the sponge with a colorless liquid he had in a bottle. Then he went into the room where 'R.' lay in bed. I (Jones) was not in the room, but opened the door and peeped in."

"P. was standing over 'R.' with the cone-shaped towel in his hand and he pressed it down over 'R.'s face."

Patrick was still reading, with no show of emotion, when Justice Jerome ordered a recess for luncheon.

The 'Ps' and 'Rs' in the statement stand for Patrick and Rice.

At another point in the proceedings Justice Jerome gave his estimate of Jones with characteristic terseness. Attorney Moore had been racking the witness with questions, all tending to bring out the valet's lying propensities. He showed that Jones had lied to and deceived his own father when the latter called on him in the hospital after he had attempted suicide; that he had told untruths to Assistant District Attorney Osborne, and that he had lied to his own counsel. Here Justice Jerome struck in with the remark:

"This witness is a weak, wicked and unfortunate man. He is a self-confessed murderer and deserves contempt, but I won't allow you to insult him."

There was very little new matter brought out at the hearing. The whole of the cross-examination of Mr. Moore, who is Patrick's personal counsel, was confined to showing up Jones as a man who could not be believed. When court adjourned it was until next Tuesday.

BANDITS GOT $125.

ALSO SECURED LARGE AMOUNT OF NON-NEGOTIABLE PAPER.

Missed Nearly $30,000, at Chardon, O.
Brave Fight by Town Watchman.

Chardon, O., April 5.—The Citizens' bank was robbed of $125. After expending 15 charges of dynamite the safe broke and the men made their escape.

Night Watchman Norman Pomeroy was standing in front of the bank when he saw two strangers approaching. When close enough they sprang upon him simultaneously and bore him to the ground. Two more soon came to his assistance. Pomeroy struggled desperately, getting to his feet again, only to go down under the weight of numbers. He thrashed the four about on the sidewalk and then out into the muddy street.

Finally he got his right arm free and drew his revolver. At the discharge one of his assailants sprang back with a yell of rage, his left arm hanging limp as though broken. The next moment Pomeroy lost consciousness from the effects of a violent blow on the head. When he recovered he found himself in the bank building, bound hand and foot, and a gag in his mouth. He lay there a witness to all the operations. At each explosion the robbers retired to places of safety. Pomeroy lay in an exposed place, and no attention was paid to him except that the man with the broken arm occasionally gave him a kick in the ribs as he passed.

The robbers were a long time getting into the vault. They gathered up the loose coins lying about and then went at the strong box. They exploded several charges, but could not force it. Through it all the people of the town slept. The gang finally escaped to a handcar towards Painesville, leaving Pomeroy bound and gagged on the floor.

The robbers only succeeded in gaining entrance to one compartment of the big safe. In another part, which was not reached, it is said nearly $30,000 was stored.

Two men were arrested at Willoughby upon the charge of being members of the gang which robbed the Chardon bank.

After an investigation Cashier C. L. Smith, of the bank, made this statement concerning the booty secured by the cracksmen:

"The robbers got $125 in gold, $20,000 in certificates held against the bank by individuals and $25,000 or $30,000 worth of mortgages and other securities belonging to individuals. None of the paper taken is negotiable. There was $30,000 in currency in an inner vault, which they did not get. The books and records of the bank were not disturbed."

A posse of citizens was scouring the surrounding country for the robbers. It was believed that some coins found in the possession of two men arrested at Willoughby are a part of those taken from the bank. The men also had several sticks of dynamite in their pockets.

LARGE AND INTERESTED.

Such Are the Audiences That Hear Evangelist Kaylor.

Evangelist Kaylor still continues to preach to large and interested audiences in the United Presbyterian church. His text last night was the Savior's declaration to those who hesitated to accept His doctrine: "If any man will do his will, he shall know of the doctrine, whether it be of God or whether I speak of myself." John 7:17. His theme was that knowledge of spiritual truth comes by obedience to its demands. Doubts, the product of sin, dissolve by doing. Assurance of the reality of divine things comes by action in accord with the divine will as revealed in the inspired word.

The evangelist made an earnest appeal to all who had not done so, to put the declaration of the text to a test by doing the things the Lord commands. Meeting tonight at 8 o'clock. Sunrise prayer meeting Sunday morning. The public is welcomed to their services.

Gould et al., trustees under the will of Jay Gould. Under the decision of the appellate division, the trustees may pay the Countess Castellane her entire income.

Ex-Judge John F. Dillon, chief counsel for the Gould trustees, said: "The majority of the court held that the party substantially interested here is the Countess Castellane; that the complaint showed on its face that she was without the jurisdiction of the state of New York and within the jurisdiction of the republic of France, and that they could not obtain service upon her within the state of New York; that in the absence of service of process upon the Countess Castellane in the state of New York, the courts of New York had and could have no jurisdiction to determine either whether she owed the debt or what was a proper allowance for her support; in fact, could determine nothing which effected her substantial rights in any case in which she was not served with process."

Chief After Pointers—Chief of Police Thompson, of East Liverpool, O., was in the city yesterday for the purpose of visiting friends and picking up suggestions for the conduct of his office. He has quite a number of friends and acquaintances in this district, says the Chronicle Telegraph.

Won the Grocers' Prize—The Retail Grocers' Association held its regular meeting last evening and transacted routine business. A drawing match was held in connection with the meeting and James Hill, of the firm of Hill Bros., was the lucky man. The prize was a box of coffee and much interest was taken in the contest.

New Families Coming In—The population of the city continues on the increase, four families moving to town yesterday. They were: Charles Lucas, from Reedsville, W. Va.; George Funk, from Mahan's Landing, and George Eanon, from Powhattan. Their goods were received at the wharfboat, and the moving of S. W. Byers was received at the freight station from Woodland avenue, Cleveland.

Child Dangerously Ill—Assistant Superintendent Dalrymple, of the Metropolitan Insurance company, received word yesterday afternoon that his daughter was very ill with an attack of typhoid fever at the home of Mrs. Dalrymple's parents at Brilliant. ## A General Review of what East Liverpool's Greatest Store for Men and Boys has Prepared for Easter Shoppers.

HOWARD STYLE.

HOWARD STYLE.

The Dunlap Hat.

The world's best—the world's leaders in style, are shown this season in most becoming proportions.

Erlanger & Co., East Liverpool Agents.

The Best Hat Values

We have ever shown are prepared for our growing trade—in Derby or Alpine, or staple soft shapes, in black and brown and pearl and tan and others—in all the popular blocks, the Erlanger's Own, The Knox, The Miller, The Youman, copied so closely that the makers couldn't tell their own from ours—in qualities rarely excelled at $3. Our special this season at

$2.00

The Manhattan Shirts.

Richest designs, best makes, choicest patterns, and an endless array of flattering terms, would still not do this season's array justice, as compared with other lines. On the principle that the best are the cheapest, Manhattan Shirts are attractively priced at

$1.50

More than 20 lines of Shirts, in colored percales and madrasses, with collars attached or separate, ditto cuffs, stiff or soft laundered, with guaranteed prices,

50c, 75c and $1.00

Boys' Clothing.

Never has the Erlanger Store made greater efforts to please. By pleasing we not alone preparing the greatest lines, but pricing them most satisfactorily as well.

Among the New Styles Shown this Year

May be mentioned Junior, Sailors, Vestees, Russian Blouses, Cossacks, Norfolks, 3-piece suits with kneepants, double-breasted sack suits, which cover the entire wants of most fashionably big or little boys, from 3 to 16 years of age.

Prices, qualities compared taken into consideration, guarantee fully a fourth less than elsewhere.

$1.50 to $7.00

Men's Apparel.

The best showing of ready-to-wear custom tailoring, including such famous makes as the Stein-Bloch Suits and Top Coats, the M. Sampter Sons & Co. fine Suits and Top Coats, which not alone compare to much of the made-to-order kinds, but actually surpass most that goes by that name, though prices of ours are hardly half the custom prices. Besides trying on and seeing the finished effect avoids much disappointment.

Men's Suits,
$10.00 to $22.00

Men's Top Coats,
$8.00 to $20.00

Men's Trousers,
$2.00 to $7.00

Youth's Clothing.

We make a great specialty of young men's attire. Believing that to please the coming man means much toward building business, we have given this branch such care and attention as must make this the store for more than a good majority of East Liverpool's young men—for more than the majority have an eye to style, to durability, to price.

Suits and Top Coats in all the newest weaves, just as you'll find in our assortments for men, and priced about a third less than men's sizes.

Youths' Suits,
$4 to $20

Youths' Top Coats,
$8 to $15

Youth's Dress Trousers,
$1.50 to $6

A stock of trunks, valises and travelers' goods. A complete showing of men's and boys' furnishings. A most attractive exhibit of children's fancy hats and caps.
